Public company audit capabilities for the healthcare and life sciences industries

crowe.com/healthcare

You may know Crowe audit services through our reputation for integrity, objectivity, and ethical standards. What you may not know is that our audit experience runs deep in the healthcare industry.

We've been conducting independent audits for a diverse range of healthcare organizations for decades and have gained a comprehensive understanding of our clients' businesses, the concerns of their stakeholders, and the critical issues that affect the healthcare industry.

We know that healthcare stakeholders rely on independent audits to provide meaningful assessments of the financial statements prepared by company management. We've built a strong reputation for exceptional client engagement, combining the expertise of a large accounting firm with distinctive client service that ranks far above our peers. Our audit experience extends from publicly-traded healthcare and life sciences organizations to private equity-owned entities, all of which rely on our independence and professional skepticism.
